

FAIRBORNE

Sales Coordinator / Sales Representative

Reporting to the Director of Sales, we are looking for a motivated and resourceful sales professional to assist with the sales of residential multi-family real estate communities throughout the lower mainland.

You are a team player who thrives in a high paced environment and have well developed organizational skills and a strong ability to multi-task. You possess a high standard of integrity and professionalism and preferably have a B.C. Real Estate License.

We thank all candidates for their submissions, however, only those selected for interview will be contacted. All submissions will be kept on file confidentially with our Human Resources department for a minimum of six months.